

Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement (TEA) Program

Spring and fall 2020

Application Deadline: May 2, 2019

The Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program (TEA) provides outstanding secondary school teachers of English, social studies, math, science, and special education with unique opportunities to develop expertise in their subject areas, enhance their teaching skills and increase their knowledge about the United States. The teachers come to the United States from all world regions for a six-week academic program at a U.S. university graduate school of education, including intensive training in teaching methodologies, lesson planning, teaching strategies for their home environment, teacher leadership, and the use of instructional technologies. The program also includes field experience at a secondary school to engage participants with American teachers and students.

Eligibility:

Eligible applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Be current secondary school-level, full-time teachers in a school that serves a primarily local (not expatriate) population;
- Have five or more years of classroom experience in TEA teaching disciplines: English, EFL, Social Studies, Mathematics, Science, or special education;
- Be citizens of and residents in Algeria
- Have earned a Bachelor's degree;
- Obtain a minimum score of 450 on paper based TOEFL or equivalent English language examination*; and
- Demonstrate a commitment to continue teaching after completion of the program.

Important: The selected participants will be going to the U.S. either on January 2019 cohort or September 2019 cohort. The program takes place during the school year and it is the applicant's responsibility to obtain the necessary permissions to leave school for 6 weeks.
